

12.11.24 | Alerts & Publications

The Low-Income Housing Tax Credit Outline 2024 Edition

Klein Hornig is excited to announce the release of the 2024 Edition of the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) Outline.

For over twenty-five years, this comprehensive Outline has served as a trusted resource for the affordable housing and community development industry, offering valuable insights into the LIHTC program. The 2024 Edition continues this legacy with a deep dive into the latest updates, regulations, and key strategies to navigate the complexities of the LIHTC program.

What to expect:

- In-depth analysis of key updates and developments.
- Practical tips and strategies for navigating complex tax challenges.
- Actionable takeaways to implement within your practice or business.
- Knowledgeable insights from our team of experienced attorneys.

Klein Hornig recognizes tax partners, Katie Day, Rebecca Melaas, and tax associate, Alana Paris, for their hard work and dedication in publishing this Outline.

Click here for a full copy of the Outline

“

We are incredibly proud to continue publishing this Outline. With each new edition, we remain committed to providing valuable insights and hope it continues to be a great resource for our clients and colleagues.
– The Klein Hornig Tax Group

Authors

Kathryn Galbraith Day
Partner
kday@kleinhornig.com
617.224.0627

Rebecca Ritvo Melaas
Partner
rmelaas@kleinhornig.com
617.224.0635

Alana J. Paris
Associate
aparis@kleinhornig.com
617.224.0609

Related Services

- Investor / Syndicator
- Low Income Housing Tax Credits
- Tax
- Tax Credit Finance