Overview

When I joined the firm, the mission and the friendly nature of Klein Hornig appealed to me. The creation of affordable housing for all people is an ongoing and important issue.

Brenna Chaplain is a Senior Paralegal at Klein Hornig and has been with the firm for over eighteen years. She started as a legal assistant in the Boston office and is now part of the paralegal team. Brenna assists Klein Hornig attorneys with all aspects of affordable housing and community development transactions and has experience with corporate governance, entity formation, title and survey review, due diligence review process, drafting documents, and managing the closing and post-closing process.
